

HOW TO BE A TEACHER TRAINER BY PILGRIMS TURKEY

The course focuses on ways of helping and training teachers. The content will be practically orientated. You will examine the major differences between language teaching and teacher training, investigate different ways of planning and presenting sessions and enhance your "people skills." By the end of the course you will have covered those key areas necessary to feel more confident either to take up a training position or to develop further in your current role. Materials will be partly customised for the group by the main trainer, supplemented by published materials. You will become familiar with online resources like HLT mag and the Teacher Trainer Journal. This course also provides a large amount of English practice throughout. Objectives: The course aims to provide a practically oriented analysis of key issues related to Teacher Training and Teacher Development.

- The participants will develop the expertise and the skills to design and run their own Teacher Training/Teacher Development sessions.
- They will also become more proficient in giving feedback on observed lessons and motivating teachers they mentor.

Native speakers and non-native speakers with at least an upper-intermediate level of English (B2) Experienced language teachers who want to become teacher trainers or mentors.

