

TEACHING ENGLISH THROUGH MULTIPLE INTELLIGENCE

This course is designed to help you understand more about how your students learn and acquire a foreign language. The course will bring you into contact with recent thinking and approaches to teaching related to Multiple Intelligences. It will also deal with issues of assessment and evaluation. Materials will be created for the group by the main trainer, supplemented by published materials and by work presented by the participants themselves.

- They will adapt the theory in the classroom using English as a medium of instruction.
- They will reflect on creating a successful climate for learning.
- They will enhance their fluency, improve their self-confidence.
- They will master the language learnt thus enjoying teaching in English.

- Native and non-native speaking teachers of all levels - from primary to adult.
- You will need B1+/B2 to C1/C1+ level of English.

